RISING, is Brian Freemantle's fourteenth book featuring Charlie going back to 1977, when the cold war was very deep, very dark and very real.

Red Star Rising: A Thriller (Charlie Muffin Thrillers ...

Red Star Rising is chock full of spy intrigue, actually brimming with the good stuff that thriller readers like to read. So full, in fact, that the plot becomes unwieldy at points. But, I did decide for the five stars given how my interest stayed with the book to the point that I read it in less than a day.

A talky thriller of rogues repeating half-truths in the hopes of manufacturing reality; a terrific story starring Freemantle's Charlie Muffin.

Freemantle's Muffin man returns for the 15th time, and the story seems to take up where his Red Star Rising (2010, etc.) left off. Charlie Muffin is in a safe house, out of the game, aching to return.
