Artist Biography by Stewart Mason. Possibly the most pretentiously named band since Four Non-Blondes, Seattle pop trio the Day I Fell Down make a quirky but accessible brand of alternative rock that isn't as oddball as they probably think it is, but has its own eclectic charms. The Day I Fell Down formed in 1994 when Iowa native Robert Dan, a former voice and composition student enamored of classical music, decided to form a rock band.

Poem: The Day I Fell Down the Toilet by Steve Turner. The day I fell down the toilet. Is the day I'll never forget, One moment I was comfort. The next I was helpless and wet. My feet tipped up to the ceiling. My body collapsed in the bowl. In haste I grabbed at the handle. And found myself flushed down a hole.

The Day I Fell Into a Fairytale by Ben Miller, Daniela

2. To fail to do something adequately or as expected. To convey this meaning, the phrase "fall down on the job" is often used. It was the government's duty to make sure their citizens were protected from a financial disaster like this, but they've fallen down on the job. Jeez, what a glaring mistake. It looks like someone fell down on the job.
